—We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Leop. Godshaw on the arrival of a son.

—L. Horn, a prominent Beale street merchant, is about making a trip to Europe.

—Leon Lowenstein, of B. Lowenstein & Bros., left on a business trip to New York City.

—Miss Minnie Lehman entertained her friends in a charming manner last Sunday evening.

—Moses Elkan, of Selma, Ala., and Adolph Goldsmith were in the city during the past week.

—Mrs. Eugene Lehman's "St. Patrick" party last week was one of the prettiest affairs of the season.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kahn's family circle has been increased by the addition of a daughter. Mazel Tov.

—Harry Finkelstein, so well known among the merchants of Memphis, has made Dallas his future headquarters.

—Messrs. Dave Douglas and M. Freiberg, dealers in clothing in a place free from overflow, came to Memphis.

—H. B. Mauss is again in our midst and expects to remain for some time. We extend "Harry" a hearty welcome.

—Mrs. A. Gitelman has left for Vicksburg, to be absent several weeks. We wish her a pleasant sojourn.

—We are glad to know that Isadore Morris, of Manassas and Hernando streets, is recovering from a recent illness.

—Miss Stella Harpmann entertained her "euchre club" last Friday, and an enjoyable time was had by all present.

—Mrs. Albert Hilbert's euchre party for the flood sufferers last week was a great success, both financially and socially.

—The Misses Hirsch entertained their friends at euchre Thursday evening, and a delightful time was had by all present.

—B. Hirschman, of Columbus, Miss., was here to attend the B'rith Milah of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leop. Godshaw.

—Miss Sadie Silberberg has returned from an extended trip to Indianapolis, where she was the guest of relatives and friends.

—Sol Gans, of Little Rock, Ark., was in Memphis this week, having come here for the purpose of accompanying his father home.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. Bokstein, of Greenville, parents of Charles Bokstein, are the guests of the family of Fred Wolf, on Carroll avenue.

—Miss Henrietta Hexter, who has been enjoying the proverbial hospitality of New Orleans, is home again, much delighted with her trip.

—Mrs. Henry Frank leaves next week for Philadelphia, and from thence goes to Europe, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Jack Singer.

—Mrs. S. Goldbaum, daughter of the late Sol Goldbaum, is confined in New York, and [illegible] remembered her [illegible] in his [illegible] are home. Through the medium of the SPECTATOR she bids her friends of Memphis farewell.

—Julius Nathan and daughter, Gertie, leave for New York on April 14th, and will sail for Antwerp on the 21st inst., remaining there for three months.

—Mrs. H. Bejach, of Shreveport, La., formerly of Memphis, is visiting the families of Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Frank, at 84 Poplar street.

—Chas. Nathan has returned from his recent trip South, and is now managing Samelson's Peabody Cafe cigar stand, where he will be pleased to see all of his friends.

—The Fandango Club will meet at an early date to elect officers for the coming year. The club intends entertaining its members and friends at an early day. The officers predict the season of '97 to be one of much pleasure for all who may be its guests.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Lena, to Mr. Herman Jacobson, of Clarksdale, Miss. The wedding is to take place next Sunday, April 4th, at the Baron Hirsch Temple. Banquet at Odd Fellows' hall.

—The numerous friends and admirers of Miss Ophelia Mayer, of Vicksburg, will be delighted to learn that she is again in our midst. This lovely young lady failed to visit us this winter, and her absence was keenly felt, as she is greatly admired by everyone. We predict for Miss Ophelia a delightful stay.

—Miss Colin Mendholm, of Washington, D. C., who has spent the winter visiting her relatives Mr. and Mrs. H. Hilberth, departed for home Sunday evening. While here Miss Colin was the recipient of much social attention, and made a host of friends during her stay, who regret seeing her leave, but live in hopes of seeing Miss Colin return in the near future.

—The Salon Circle meets next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock promptly. Being a lecture afternoon, and the election of officers taking place, the members are urged to be in attendance early. Members of the circle are entitled to bring guests. The following will be the programme: Vocal Solo, Miss Leah Hirsch; Lecture, Dr. Goltman; Recitation, Miss Ella Greenebaum; Instrumental Duet, Mrs. J. Felsenthal and Miss Mollie Pinkus.

—Through an oversight last week we omitted to make mention of the benefit for the flood sufferers participated in by Misses Bay Samuel, Annie Porter, Onita White, Florence Mendel, Pearl Mendel, Edna Hirsh, Julia Hirsh, Flora May Samuel and Sophie Lehman. The entertainment was given Wednesday night last, at the residence of Miss Helen Hilberth, 206 Main street. The affair proved a success in every respect, and the house was taxed to its utmost. The young ladies deserve much credit for their efforts in behalf of the sufferers.

—Last Sunday evening a number of friends of Mr. Henry Levy surprised him by calling at his residence, it being his twenty-first birthday, and presented him with a diamond locket. Mr. Henry D. Bauer made the presentation speech in his usual happy way, after which the party repaired to Luchmann's, where the "Boys" had full charge at Max's expense. It was an evening long to be remembered by all who participated. The following comprised the party: Messrs. Henry D. Bauer, Dave Levy, Max Levy, Maynard Levy, Sam Jacobs, Ben Jacobs, Wm. Caro, Jake Pollock, Charles Wolf, Leo Levy, Henry Oppenheimer, Sam Veit, Maurice Rawitzer, Sam D. Dreyfus.

—The operetta "The Debutantes' Reception," which took place at the New Lyceum theater last Monday, proved quite a success. Although there was a good sized audience present, who greatly enjoyed the programme as rendered by the following ladies and gentlemen: Misses Stella Harpmann, Hattye Skaller, Jessie Seessel, Stella Hirsch, Natalie Danheiser, Sarah Herschberg, Halle, Brooks, Gabay and Florence Mendel; Messrs. Abe L. Johl, Herman Scharff, Carl Roescher, Bert Simon, Sydney Brooks, Wm. Sonfield. Miss Marie C. Hitzfeld was musical directress, and Mark Davis stage manager. The minuette so much enjoyed by those present was taught by Miss Freda Michel.

—Last Sunday afternoon, March 28th, the closing exercises and examination of the Sunday School of the Baron Hirsch Temple took place. The school was inaugurated by the local branch of the National Council of Jewish Women, and under the most able supervision of Mrs. George Hexter, has made rapid progress and done much toward the instruction of the children now attending the Sunday School, there being now a large number in attendance. Mrs. Hexter and the other self-sacrificing ladies who have taken upon themselves the task of teaching the children, some of whom are very young, deserve much credit for their efficient services. The rendition of the following interesting programme showed much careful and painstaking preparation:
