

THE JEWISH HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF MEMPHIS & THE MID-SOUTH

PRESENTS 2026-2027 PROGRAMMING

Jewish Community Archives

Temple Israel Chapel • 1376 E Massey Rd • Sunday, August 16 at 2pm CT

Join us for a special show-and-share featuring highlights from the Temple Archives, showcasing materials that document the rich history of the congregation and the Memphis Jewish community.

This program will spotlight photographs, documents, and other archival treasures as well as the joint Jewish Historical Society (JHS) and Temple Israel Oral History Program. Discover how these collections preserve personal stories and shared memories for future generations. Whether you're a longtime member or simply curious about our history, this is a wonderful opportunity to explore the past through the archives.

Coming This October • Overton Park • 2080 Poplar Ave

Learn about the WWI doughboy statue, which is actually a statue of Memphian Albert Cohen, who one month shy of his 15th birthday was the the youngest American soldier to die in the Great War.

Prior to the program will be a short installation program for new JHS board members and officers, including David Bearman who will be succeeding as president.

Free & open to the public • In person only
