LET THINE EYES BEHOLD WHAT IS RIGHT."---- Psalms 17: 2

נדנה תחזינה מישרים:

VOL. 59. No. 15. Whole No. 1,518.

MEMPHIS, TENN., AND NEW ORLEATS, LA. FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1915.

spirits of the heartbroken Helene, whose

$2.00 PER YEAR.

THE FATHER.

By Emanuel Schreiber.

(Continued From Last Week.)

lad placed in him, a young Jew. At told him that shw," signi in this uncaptured was the man of his of that followed made. surprising, not to say annoying, to him. | ticman knew now that there was work | y cherous Helene, anxious to end this awkward for him in Vienna. situation, put her arms around her fath- While Sternberg never thought that er and imprinting a kiss upon his lips, his father was poor, he never suspected JEWISH FARMERS, that he possessed great wealth. He did JEWISH FARMERS The doctor was just appointed profes- not know that the coal dealer of thirty sor ordinarius and came here in order years ago had acquired some of the to announce to us his good fortune." richest coal mines of Moravia and Aus-Nolens volnes, Sternberg was forced to trian Silesia, which netted him millions congratulate Dr. Kohn on his remark- of gulden. Knowing how the land lay, able success and perfunctorily extended the grandfather firmly resolved to sehis hand. Now, more than ever before, cure, at whatever cost, the happiness of the lovers knew that the gulf which his beloved grandchild, whose noble separated them was one not to be easi- qualities of mind and heart fairly hypnoly bridged over. The professor left the tized him. As the wedding was but two Sternberg residence in less buoyant weeks off, there was not much time to spirits than when he entered it.

Sernberg mansion ceased. Helene suf- of all he wended his way to the univerfered in silence. As troubles seldom sity and managed to listen to a lecture come singly, after a few weeks her good on history given by Prof. Kohn. He mother, who for years had been an in- wanted to see and hear the man whom valid, died. Thus poor Helene was de- his granddaughter loved. So well imprived of her mother and lover. | pressed was he with the young scholar was particularly popular among the grandfather. He then called on a deyounger aristocracy. As a result, many tective agency in order to find out all counts and no-accounts placed them- he could about Helene's husband-to-be. selves under obligations to Sternberg. It, He soon learned that the count was a is an open secret that were it not for gambler, head over heels in debt and a the kindness, forbearance and long-suf- roue. There was but one week left befering patience of the Jewish bankers fore the wedding and old Sternberg dein Europe many scions of the so-called termined to take drastic measures. He noblest families who are, as a rule, angave orders to a number of brokers to IF BACK HURTS USE ti-Semites, would not only lose their buy secretly as many shares of Monprestige as officers in the army, but tana copper stock as they could get and lect, gradually became the meeting place most fashionable tailors and purchased of the so-called nobility of birth. For a silk hat and patent leather shoes. He the aristocrats were shallow and arro- then hired a carriage and hurried to the gant. To say that Helene, whose mind university in time to meet Dr. Kohn in and heart were open to everything that order to ask him where a telephone is good, beautiful and true, felt bored message could reach him the following like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged Memp. 185. in such company, is putting it mildly. Tuesday noon. Such was particularly the case when she | The wedding day, Tuesday, March 23 compared these fops with Prof. Kohn. | arrived. At high noon a galaxy of the Yet her father's wish was law. The re- leading aristocracy of the Austrian capsult of these changed conditions was lital had assembled in the gorgeously that one of these young aristocrats had decorated salon of Sternberg's mansion. asked for Helene's hand, and the wed- Helene was pale and beautiful in her ding was to thake place in three weeks. white satin wedding gown, her only States was felt severely. The banking pearls, the gift of the groom. But the house of Sternberg had heavily specu- words uttered by the great Lessing: lated in American mining stock. Dur- "Perlen bedeuten Tranen," fully applied breakfast for a few days and your kiding the panic copper fell from thirty to to the unhappy bride, for she had spent forty points. The larger portion of the night and all the forenoon in shed-Sternberg's fortune was invested in ding bitter tears of sorrow.

to say of the approaching wedding in mutterings of "Bankruptcy," "Suspen- It also neutralizes the acids in the urine high life and of the contracting parties, sion of payment," were heard. At this so it no longer irritates, thus ending the beautiful Helene Sternberg and point another message came, after the bladder disorders. Count von Halfenstein, of an old aris- reading of which Sternberg fell back in Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, tocratic family. When old Hermann his chair. This was the signal for the makes a delightful effervescent lithia Sternberg, the father of the banker, sudden dispersion of the cowardly crowd water drink which everybody should take read of this marriage he immediately of aristocratic wedding guests. Even now and then to keep their kidneys clean left his little home town for Vienna. the "noble" bridegroom and his noble thus avoiding serious complications.

child of his only child married. Upon accumulated millions from me inexhis arrival in the city he went to the haustible coal mines. I see the precious Following this sad incident the minis- banking house of his son. Berthold, son-in-law whom you had piked out ter sent a messenger to Dr. Kohn, com- while embarrassed, received his father, for your high minded child has taken to manding him to appear before him the who without referring to the past, in his heels; it is just what I exected of next day. The unexpected summons formed his son of the object of his visit. such an adventurer, who cared only for aroused in the doctor mingled feelings Berthold told his father that he would your money. It was just for the purof fear and doubt. Full of intense ex- be welcome in his house. He added, pose of unmasking this ignore noblecitement, he hurried to the govern- however, that considering the circum- man that through my agent on the mental palace. At the sight of the stances, he would have to confine him- stock exchange 1, your father brought friendly countenance of the high offi- self to a room at the top of the house, about your monetary financial ruin. cial he was soon reassured, but he was and that he was not to make himself Within twenty-four hours, however, astounded and overwhelmed with joy known to Helene's finance or any of the your copper stock will be gilf elged. when the minister appointed him pro- friends of the house. On the other have already given orders to my brokers fessor ordinarius of history and most hand, arrangements would be made by to buy up Montana copper stock at alcordially congratulated him on this which the aged father could witness the most any price. But mark well, the great honor. He was so embarrassed wedding ; emony. Hermann Stern- wedding, for which all preparations have that he could hardly find words to ex- berg accept these humiliating condi- been made, must and shall take place. press his deep gratitude for such, to tions, becau, they afforded him the The only change in the program will be him, unexpected distinction. Needless only opportulity of being near his that our Helene, instead of marrying to say, he hailed the first flacre in sight grandchild, when he had never seen. the man she loathes, will marry the and drove post haste to the residence After a short me Helene learned to man she loves." With tears in his eyes of Berthold Sternberg. He found his love and idolize her grandfather, who, the prodigal son embraced his old, longbeloved Helene at home and proudly im- although he had spent all his years in a neglected father and, with a contrite parted to her the news of his happiness. little town, was tell versed in affairs heart, asked for his foregiveness. He With radiant eyes, every glance of of modern life. Very spare moment was about to send for Dr. Kohn, but which betokened deep admiration for the she could steal from her many social smilingly his aged father said that he man she loved, she looked upon the duties she spent in his company. It did had already prepared for the occasion. speaker, drinking in each word he ut- not take the old father very long to He added that the man of Helene's heart tered and sharing his joy. Inspired by find out that his son's fortune was not was in the ante room only awaiting Helene's attitude, the doctor pictured as large as rumor he t, and that his her father's summons. Unhesitatingly fy the confidence which the government were not consider to tocks, which Berthold, accompanied in father, which the government were not consider to the government were not consider to the government were not consider to the went into the ante to a government were not consider to the government which is the government where the government were not consider to the government where the government were not consider to the government which is the government which is the government where the government were not consider to the government which is the government where the government were not consider to the government which is the government where the government were not consider to the government which is the government where the government which is the government which is the government where the government was a supplication of the government which is the government where the government which is the government which is the government which is the governmen this point Mr. Sternberg arrived. The tended husband, 'n's i---- him to Helene. The tended husband, 'n's i---- lose. Hence the old millionaire devoted After this the doctor's visits to the his time to important business. First The banking house of B. Sternberg that he introduced himself as Helene's The salon of Sternberg, at one time price. He then ordered for himself his the rendezvous of the nobility of intel- first full dress suit from one of the

The panic of 1907 in the United ornament being a magnificent rope of

A short time before the ceremony mes- and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys Montana copper.

A short time before the ceremony mes- and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and Vienna papers had a great deal sengers hurried to and fro. Mysterious and stimulate them to normal activity. ertheless he wanted to see the only remained, and attempted to rouse the it is only trouble.

only concern was fear for the healn and family and physician succeeded in reviving the banker, a most remark ble incident occurred. A distinguishe looking old gentleman, dressed in theheight of fashion, who might have beer taken for a senator or a judge of the apreme court, appeared on the scene. He approached the banker and spoke as follows: "Cheer up and be strong. Money | lost, nothing lost, so long as linor refunds you need. I, your father, have tocks, which Berthold, ecompanied of father, ber in- now happy lover h 1121105

CONVENTION.

The Sixth Annual Convention of the Federation of Jewish Farmers of America was held last Sunday at the Educational Alliance Building in New York. More than 1,000 men and women crowd-'ed into the hall, and scores of others were kept standing outside after the doors were closed. The Federation now has a membership of 1,400 farmers, with 63 branch organizations in 11 states. There were nearly 100 delegates on hand when the convention opened.

The growth of the Federation, according to Mr. Jaretzki, signified that farming had begun to take a strong hold upon the Jewish immigrant to the Unit-

Marcus M. Marks, Borough President, made the principal address. He said he was delighted to see exploded the fallacy that there are no Jewish In mers.

SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If Kidneys Feel Like Lead or Bladder Bothers You. Meat Forms Uric Acid.

have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach. sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoorful in a glass of water before neys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and need a flushing occasionally, else we

Pleasing and Serving Memphis FOR'S SOYEARS

Fortune=Ward Drug Co.

1884—OUR RECORD—1914

111 MADISON AVE. mains. Draw upon me for hatever @ 141 S. MAIN ST. (Two Stores) We Solicit Your Business With Assurances of Courteous Treatment, Quick Delivery and Less Prices. Both Phones.

J. W. NORRIS & CO. FUNERAL DIRECTORS,

275 MADISON AVE.

MEMPHIS. TENN.

TELEPHONE 585.

We are prepared to fill your order promptly and to your entire satisfaction.

We are sole receivers and distributors of the famous:

GALLOWAY FANCY LUMP COAL

We also handle RED ASH, BRILLIANT, JELLICO AND KIRL DICKY COAL, and also the very by tof EHIGH ANTHRACITE.

Galloway-Eberhart Coal Go.

Phones 1667.

4 South Front Street.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE.

We Will Greatly Appreciate Your Order.

MARKET OF QUALITY

SWIFT AUTO SERVICE.

Three Deliveries Daily to All Parts of the City. One Delivery Sunday.

Five 185 Cumb. 186. Phones 603. At your 604. Most tolks forget that the kidneys, Service. 678.

Arthur Coessel

15 South Second Street.

What Our People Like.

A Jewelry Store

WHERE THE UNVARYING RULE IS ABSOLUTELY ONE PRICE AND CASH.

and lemon juice, combined with lithia, No time spent in cutting the prices which, the BEST QUALITY Considered, are already down to all reason and justice. CONSULT OUR OPTICIAN.

MULFORD JEWELRY CO.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE.

The idea that his only grandchild should marry a non-Jew, and a titled one at that, was most repulsive to him. Nev- that, was most repulsive to him. Nev-