

Abraham Fogelman

Abraham Fogelman was born at Paltiev (Warsaw) Poland in 1883, a son of David Isaac and Mindel Rachael Fogelman. Mr. Fogelman received his education in his native country in Hebrew, Russian and Polish.

In 1913, Mr. Fogelman immigrated to this country and settled in Memphis engaging in the shoe business.

In 1909 he married Miss Malbe Sandrowitz. They have three children, Morris, Harry and Louis.

Mr. Fogelman holds the office of conductor in Order Sons of Israel and is a member of Progressive Order of the West, Sam Schloss Lodge of the B'nai B'rith and Congregation Beth El Emeth.

Mrs. Fogelman is a member of Ladies' Auxiliary Progressive Order of the West.