

Abraham Kipper

Abraham Kipper, is the son of Moishe and Sheva Kipper. His home is at 297 Hill Street, and his office is in the Exchange Bldg.

Mr. Kipper was born at Warsaw, Poland, July 19, 1900. At the age of 9, his parents immigrated to Antwerp, Belgium; however, they did not remain there for long, and settled afterward in London, England, for one year.

Mr. Kipper arrived in Memphis in 1917. It was then that he became interested in the study of languages, and in the meantime, tried several things whereby he might make a living. Today, he is representative of the Jefferson Standard Insurance Company, with offices at the Exchange Building, doing a successful business.

He married Miss Gertrude Tennenbaum, of Chicago, by whom he has two children, Sheva, age 3, and Moishe, age 1.

His social and civic recreations are recording secretary, Jewish National Arbeiter Farband; prominent and active member of the Progressive Order of the West; member of Congregation Beth El Emeth, where he serves as Cantor.

Mr. Kipper also possesses a beautiful high baritone voice, and was highly praised by Professor Von Buelow, who was his teacher for a time. He also studied music with Professor Misha Feibish. Mr. Kipper is considered a very gifted singer, and is much in demand on local musical programs, as well as on programs in the neighboring states and cities.
