

Abraham Novak

Abraham Novak, was born at Fastow, Russia, in 1887, a son of Yiddel and Esther Novak. His early Jewish education was received at the Cheder until the age of 13.

Mr. Novak resided in Russia during the period of the Russian revolution and the massacres after the downfall of the Czarist regime.

In 1906, he married Miss Mindel Novak, a relative, and they have three children; Ida who is married to Sam Drayer and resides in Little Rock, Arkansas; and two sons, Harry and Julius.

In 1912, Mr. Novak moved to Memphis and has been very active in Arbeiter Ring Circles, being the first secretary of the Farband, a member of the Arbeiter Ring and very interested in the Farband Cultural Center.

Mrs. Novak is an active member of the Mother's Club of the Farband.