

Eugene Frederick Bepalow

Gene Bepalow and his wife, Marge (as they are fondly known to everyone in Memphis) came to this city in 1929 and have entered into the social and civic life of the community with great zest. They have helped in everything that came along.

The Bepalows live at 1544 Peabody and Mr. Bepalow is chief engineer at the Choctaw Culvert & Machinery Co.

Mr. Bepalow and his wife, the former Margaret Ruppa, were married on November 11, 1933 after a college romance which reads like a story book romance. They both are graduates of Wisconsin University at Madison, Wisconsin.

Mr. Bepalow was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, March 11, 1900, the son of Benjamin and Etta Kestin Bepalow. He attended grade school and high school in Milwaukee and then after graduation entered Wisconsin.

The Bepalows have two children, Fredlyn Dorothy, age 4 and Hope Marilyn, age 8, who attends Bruce School.

Mr. Bepalow belongs to the Memphis Engineers Club, all Masonic Lodges, Shrine, Elks, B'nai B'rith, of which he is a trustee of the Sam Schloss Lodge; Advisor A. Z. A., Menorah Club, Big Ten Club, and Baron Hirsch Synagogue, of which he is a board member.

Mrs. Bepalow is an officer of the Jewish Ladies' Aid Society, a member of many local organizations and President of the Salon Circle.
