

Herman Berzansky

Hyman Berzansky was born at Yanow, Kovno, Litau, in 1870, a son of Abraham and Esther Berzansky. His father was a tailor and Hyman proceeded to learn the same trade. From Litau he went to London, England where he remained until 1904, at which time he immigrated to the United States.

Mr. Berzansky is a trustee of the Beth El Emeth Congregation, an ardent Zionist and a member of the Order Sons of Zion, Zionist Organization, Progressive Order of the West, and the Odd Fellows.

He married Rishe Padway of Milwaukee. The Padway family were known for their leadership in Jewish Communal Affairs. They have two children, Esther, who is married to Mr. J. Belansky and a single daughter, Mariam. Esther is past president of the Hadassah, and Miriam is a very active worker in the same organization.
