

Ike Lebolt

Col. I. C. Lebolt

Colonel I. C. Lebolt, the son of Rosa and Adam Lebolt, was born in Dayton, Ohio, but left at an early age for Holly Springs, Miss. After staying there for a few years he went to Birmingham, Ala. where he remained for fifteen years. He came to Memphis in 1903 and became interested in the manufacturing of extracts and soda water supplies. In 1918, he retired from active business.

Colonel Lebolt received the title of "Colonel" for his splendid work in membership drives of the B'nai B'rith. He was one of the greatest factors in increasing the membership of the Sam Schloss Lodge from 306 to 1086 members. He is a member of the Board of Governors for the B'nai B'rith Home, Advisory Board of the A. Z. A., Executive Committee of the Sam Schloss Lodge. He has an honorary membership for life in the Birmingham Lodge, No. 77, B. P. O. E.

He married Miss Hannah Wellman of Birmingham, Alabama in 1904.
