

Jake Felt

Jake Felt, the son of Joseph and Edith Bretar Felt, was born in Odessa, Russia on July 8, 1900. At the age of five, he came to America with his parents, and lived in St. Louis for two years. After which he came to Memphis which is now his home.

Mr. Felt received his education in the Memphis public and High Schools, and graduated with honors. After completing his education, he entered the brokerage business, and is now the president of the M. E. Carter Co. and the Fruit and Produce Exchange.

He is married to Rose Mendelsohn Felt, and is the father of three children, Sureeva aged eight; William, aged five and Joe, aged three.

Mr. Felt is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Baron Hirsch Congregation, chairman of the Sunday School Committee, vice-president of the Memphis Zionist District, treasurer of the Anshei Sphard Congregation, member of the Sam Schloss Lodge of the B'nai B'rith, Lions Club, and takes an active part in civic and religious activities.