

Jacob Shainberg

Jacob Shainberg came to Memphis in 1839, two years after he arrived in New York city from his native Britchanni, Bessarabia, Russia, where he was born in 1872. He was the son of Harry and Hannah Shainberg and received his early education in Bessarabia.

In 1899, Mr. Shainberg married Ida Schreiberin, and the union was blessed with eight children. Pearl is the wife of Harry Kabakoff, and they have one child, Rubye, 21. Rose married Jack M. Lynch and their children are Bertram, 11, Margie, 6, and Maury, 4. Abe Shainberg, whose wife is Bessie Thomas, has two children, Shirley, 8, and Raymond, 2. Henrietta, the wife of Harry Bearman, has one child, Jane, 8. Mae who married Fred Fried, has two children, Alan, 5, and Betty, 4. Maurice, the youngest son, married Ethel Joseph, and they have one daughter, Beryl, a year old. Louis married Dena Shear and has two children, Herman, 12, and Ray 4. Mendel is married to Estelle Erber and has two children, Jerome, 3, and Carolyn, 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Shainberg are at home at 39 N. Cox. Mr. Shainberg is engaged in the wholesale dry goods business with his sons, the firm being styled J. Shainberg and Sons. He is a past treasurer of Baron Hirsch Congregation, a member of Sam Schloss Lodge No. 35, B'nai B'rith, an Elk, a Mason, a Shriner, and a member of the Knights of Pythias.

Mrs. Shainberg is a member of Baron Hirsch Ladies' Auxiliary, the Jewish Ladies' Aid Society, and Hadassah.