

Joseph Menke

Joseph Menke, the son of Isaac and Bertha (Cohen) Menke was born in Memphis in the year of 1890. He received his early education in the primary and elementary schools of Memphis, and then in the University of Tennessee where he studied Pharmacy.

He began his professional career as a chemist. This career eventually led to the formation of a partnership with Morris Shapiro, and the establishment of a concern of manufacturers of cosmetics and chemicals known as the Keystone Laboratories.

In 1919, he married Miss Hilda Stark, and is the father of two children; Gloria, aged 12, and Hubert, aged ten, who are both students in the public schools of Memphis.

Mrs. Menke is a member of the Regina Lodge, the Jewish Ladies Aid Society, and the Auxiliary to the B'nai B'rith Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Menke live at the Parkview Hotel.
