

Leopold Goldberger

(Deceased)

Leopold Goldberger, who died recently, came to America around fifty-three years ago and settled in New York City, where he remained for six years. Mr. Goldberger was born in Austria-Hungary, received his early education there and married Miss Molly Patterson there about 57 years ago.

After leaving New York, he settled in Nashville where he remained for seven years, coming to Memphis from there. Here, about forty years ago he entered business with his brother and son-in-law, Ben Friedman and they began the Memphis Clothing Factory. Later he went back to New York where he remained for a few years. He then went to Natchez, Mississippi where he made his home for 26 years, until the time of his death.

Louis and Mollye Patterson Goldberger had five children, all of whom are living in Mississippi except Sophia, who lives in Memphis and who was married to Ben Friedman. They had one son, Dr. Sidney Friedman, who is now married and has one son. The children living in Mississippi are Lena, who is married to J. H. Goldberger and has two daughters, Hilda and Elise, who is married; Max, who married Rosine Abrams; Esther, who married Ben Stockner and has a daughter, Miriam, who was married and is now a widow; and Regina, who married Louis Fry, and has a daughter, Marjorie Lois, who is now thirteen years old.

— — — — —