

Morris Yergin

Morris Yergin was born at Novoroseisk, Russia in the year of 1890, a son of Zevi and Bessie Yergin. Mr. Yergin attended the Russian and Polish schools, where he received his education. Mr. Yergin received his early Jewish education at the Cheder.

In 1906, Mr. Yergin immigrated to the United States. He settled in Nashville, Tenn., where he remained for three years. In 1909, he moved to Memphis and entered the tailoring business.

In December, 1912 he married Miss Ida Katz. They have three children, Harry Isadore, Emmanuel Joseph and Aaron Leon.

Mr. Yergin is a member of Congregation Mischne, Baron Hirsch Synagogue, Beth El Emeth Congregation, Progressive Order of the West, executive committee Sons of Israel and Masonic Order.

Mrs. Yergin is a member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Progressive Order of the West.
