

Robert Cohn

Robert Cohn was born in Bremen, Germany, August 11, 1874. He received a high school education there, and entered on his business career at the age of 16. When he was 19, he went to live in Bordeaux, France, moving a few years later to England, where he lived in Bradford, Yorkshire, and in Liverpool.

He arrived in Memphis on Sept. 12, 1900, and has pursued a varied career, as cotton merchant, farmer, and insurance agent. His Heart's Delight Farm, at Forrest Hill, Tenn., where he lives, is well known throughout the community.

Mr. Cohn is married and has two children, Sigmund, who attends Harvard, and Cornelia, a student at the University of Wisconsin.

He is a member of Temple Children of Israel, Sam Schloss Lodge No. 35, B'nai B'rith, Masons, Shrine, and Elks. He is also well known in the community as a lecturer and preacher.
