

Solomon Cohn

Solomon Cohn, secretary of the Jewish National Arbeiter Farband, was born in Korny, Russia in 1897, the son of Isaac and Deborah Cohn. He attended Cheder, and studied the Talmud until he reached the age of fourteen.

At the age of sixteen, he came to Memphis and started his business career as a clerk in a grocery store. After he had acquired a sufficient amount of experience, he started in business for himself under the firm name of the State Penny Store.

He married Miss Lena Bachman in 1921, by whom he has two children, Sylvia Goldie, aged four, and William Herman aged seven months.

Mr. Cohn is the secretary of the Farband Credit Union, and a member of Sam Schloss Lodge of the B'nai B'rith, and the Elks Lodge.

Mrs. Cohn is a daughter of William and Mary Bachman of Clarksville, Tenn. She attended school in Clarksville and Memphis, Tenn. She is a prominent member of the Hadassah, the Jewish Ladies Aid Society, and the Mothers Club of the Jewish National Farband Schule, and was Chairman of the Bazaar for the year of 1931.

Solomon Cohn